SMITHFIELD STAGE

CURVE

Shachar Bialick is the CEO of Curve, a platform designed to connect your financial world into one hub for money, so you can spend, see and save money all in one place. From everyday payments and savings to smarter expensing, Curve makes it simple to be in control without all the traditional money hassles and headaches – and without having to open a new bank account.

INMYBAG

Iain Harper is the co-founder and CEO of InMyBag, which is designed to protect mobile devices like laptops and phones from loss, theft and damage, so members can stop worrying and keep working. InMyBag offers same-day recovery through partners such as Apple and Amazon Prime, cover for three months internationally and data backup via an exclusive partnership with CrashPlan.

PAYBASE _

PAYBASE

Anna Tsyupko is the CEO of Paybase, a London-based company providing an end-to-end solution for payments, compliance and risk – all rolled into one unified API. The Paybase Platform is designed for marketplaces such as sharing economy or crowdfunding sites, as well as fintech apps and products that have complex payment processes.

Reposit

REPOSIT

Curran McKay is the chief executive and co-founder of Reposit – a faster, more affordable alternative to the £3.5 billion tenancy deposit system. Reposit's mission is to ensure the rental market is more affordable for tenants while providing enhanced security to landlords and letting agents.

CROWDSURFER

Emily Mackay is CEO of Crowdsurfer, a data-analytics platform for crowd finance. Crowdsurfer brings big-data engineering expertise to crowd and peer finance to help the world understand where funds are flowing to. It has already unified more than a billion data points from hundreds of platforms worldwide to create the world's first crowd finance-analytics dashboard.

FINIMIZE

Max Rofagha is the founder of Finimize, the startup behind the Finimize MyLife platform. It allows its customers to create comprehensive, personalised financial plans in three minutes, free of charge. Helping millennials get their financial lives on track, Finimize is backed by London-based VC Passion Capital and has a waiting list of more than 15,000 people for the service. The company is gradually allowing users access as it builds functionality.

AgentCASH

AGENTCASH

Ante Kotarac is the Co-Founder of AgentCASH, an enterprise-grade omnichannel solution that enables SMEs to sell and manage their products on multiple channels in real time from a single back-end interface. With one click, they can start selling in bricks-and-mortar stores by using the AgentCASH mobile app, on their website using the AgentCASH payment form and through marketplaces such as Amazon.

LENDR

Linda Wang is the CEO of Lendr, a reverse auction platform for mortgages. Using artificial intelligence, Lendr replaces a lengthy and expensive process for borrowers and lenders, providing better advice, digital identity and information services to streamline onboarding and a reverse auction model so applicants receive the best offer.
